

University Commons January 2005 Calendar

Dedication of Founders' Plaque

Sunday, January 9, 3:15 pm

• A dedication ceremony at 4:00 pm will be preceded by harp music and light refreshments in the main lobby and living room of the Commons.

My Musical Life at Michigan

Monday, January 10, 5:00 pm

• Marilyn Mason has given several very well-received talks for UC residents., as well as a demonstration-tour of the Silberman-type organ at the UM Music School. She is UM University Organist and Professor of Music.

Degree Piano Recital

Sunday, January 16, 7:30 pm

• Jiayin Shen has toured extensively throughout her native China and in Germany, Switzerland, England and the United States. She has received top prizes in several competitions. She is actively involved in chamber music and maintains a thriving piano studio.

Shakespeare's Hamlet:

New Scholarship

Wednesday, January 19, 5:00 pm

• UC resident Chuck Kelly will be assisted by Diane Kirkpatrick and Bea Lawrence in this two-part presentation covering new information about Hamlet, and a dramatic reading from the play.

Lyric Baritone Recital: Paul Max Tipton

Saturday, January 22, 2:00 pm

• UM School of Music student Paul Tipton will present a recital in partial fulfillment of the requirements for his Master's degree. This native of Nashville, Tennessee, will sing work of composers Bach, Barber, Rorem and Schumann.

Cinema at the Commons

Sunday, January 23, 4:00 pm

Fanny and Alexander (1982)

• This Ingmar Bergman film garnered the academy award for best foreign language film in 1983. This is "a handsome, epic coming-of-age story that simultaneously crystallizes Bergman's darker spiritual concerns and presents a tender tale about family unity and childhood fears. The film's an artful existential quest disguised as an entertaining, literate prestige picture—that rare production that will appeal to all types of moviegoers."

What Does County Government Do, Anyway?

Monday, January 24, 5:00 pm

• County Administrator Bob Guenzel will talk about the role of the county government and about the new Delonis Center, and answer your questions about this little-known but important government entity.

Repeating Events

UC Dinners

Every Mon. & Wed. - 6:30 pm

• Students of the Culinary Arts Program at Washtenaw Community College prepare dinners at UC every Monday and Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. The new term begins January 17 for UC, and until then, meals are being provided by Katherine's Catering.

NIAFit Class

Every Tues. & Thurs. - 8:00 - 8:45 am

• UC Fitness Center. Geared to all current fitness levels. Current term ends February 17.

International Neighbors

Every Thurs - 2-5:00 pm

• This needlework group is a part of International Neighbors. All are welcome.

Tai Chi Class

New term dates and times TBA

• Master Wasantha Young leads group in this Chinese style of movement that focuses on relaxation, coordination, and balance. Tai chi movements are slow, continuous and graceful. It is often characterized as a "Meditation in Motion," because it facilitates an experience of the integration of mind, body, and vital energy.

Common Time

Every Fri - 4:30-6:30 pm

• A well-attended and informal gathering in the UC's Brass Rail Café. Residents bring a bottle of wine or an appetizer, or put $5 per person in the kitty toward supplies. It's a nice way to get to know your neighbors. Bring a friend!

Shakespeare Reading Group

Last Monday of each month, 8:00 pm

This group meets monthly to read and discuss works of Shakespeare. Featured at the meetings are readings of key scenes by members of the group.

CONTINUING COMPUTER CLASSES

Rookies/Refresher Computer Course

This course addresses the fundamentals of computer operation. In the beginning, the lessons will apply no matter whether you have a Windows PC or a MAC. New term dates and times TBA.

Digital Photography Computer Course

This course considers choice of camera, operation basics, storing, processing and sharing digital images, and scanning and printing. Instructors are Brad Bates, Toni Hayashi and Diane Kirkpatrick. Classes are Tuesdays, 10:00 to 11:30 am in the Houghton Hall classroom.

Odds and Ends

Sewing Machine—There is a sewing machine for the use of any resident in the Craft Room, and if you need help on using it, ask Claire Bernstein about it.
