Building a Great Library: A Few Highlights on a 30-year Career Collecting with Other People's Money!

Wednesday, November 2, 5:00 pm

John C. Dann, third Director of the Clements Library, is recognized internationally as an expert on Americana and an audacious collector of historical material. He's the perfect person to relate the story of the William L. Clements Library, which houses original resources for the study of American history and culture from the fifteenth to the early twentieth century.

The Marches of John Philip Sousa

Monday, November 7, 4:30 pm

UC resident and former senior associate dean of the UM Music School Paul Lehman will discuss Sousa's universal appeal as a composer, entertainer and American patriot. Please note the early starting time.

A Little (Before)Dinner Music

Wednesday, November 9, 5:15 pm

Anne Patterson, cellist, will graduate with a Master's of Music in Cello Performance next April. She will be playing J.S. Bach's Suite No. 6 in D Major for a short before-dinner recital.

Piano Recital – Rajung Yang

Thursday, November 10, 7:30 pm

Korean born pianist Rajung Yang earned both a Bachelor's and Master's of Music in Korea before coming to the UM, where she earned a second Master's. She is now preparing for her doctoral degree. Her program will include pieces by Schubert, Scriabin, Bach and Prokofiev.

From Polka Dots to Politics: A Dialogue on Being Mayor,

Monday, November 14, 5:00 pm

Former four term Ann Arbor mayor Ingrid Sheldon (1993-2000) will share stories from her public service career as well as comment on the changing nature of city politics.

Born and raised in Ann Arbor, she earned degrees in education from both Eastern Michigan University and the University of Michigan. She taught sixth grade briefly in the Livonia and Ann Arbor before devoting herself to family and community. She is continuing her thirty year relationship with Huron Valley Tennis Club, but still manages to find time to play with her five grandchildren.

2nd in New Series: Touring the Art Around Us – 4th Floor, Woodbridge North, Friday, November 18, 3:30 pm

Meet in the Brass Rail Café for a guided tour of some of the wonderful and interesting art displayed in our buildings—sponsored by the Art Committee.

An Artist's View of Travel, Art and Life

Monday, November 21, 5:00 pm

Martha Rock Keller, well-known artist and adjunct asst. professor in the UM School of Art and Design, says "My travels have taken me to England, Ireland, France, Germany, Spain and Italy (Tuscany and Umbria) as well as coast to coast in the US and to such sites as Montana and Arizona and the Lake Michigan and the Gulf shore. My attempts at doing landscapes of these sites intensifies what I've seen there and reflects on what I've seen here in Washtenaw County. After 30 years of painting, I'm more and more aware of what a visual paradise we live in. Each new site refreshes the truism and enhances the sense of living that art at its best brings us. Decisions that direct me through a painting parallel the ones that direct me through my daily life. I hope to show you how."

CONTINUING EVENTS

Cinema at the Commons

Sunday, November 27, 4:00 pm

Rear Window (1954) In this Hitchcock thriller, professional photographer L.B. "Jeff" Jeffries (James Stewart) breaks his leg while getting an action shot at an auto race. Confined to his New York apartment, he spends his time looking out of the rear window observing the neighbors. He begins to suspect that the man opposite may have murdered his wife. Jeff enlists the help of his society model girlfriend Lisa Fremont (Grace Kelly) and his nurse Stella (Thelma Ritter) to investigate.

UC Dinners

Every Mon. & Wed., 6:30 pm

Students of the Culinary Arts Program at Washtenaw Community College prepare dinners as part of a class in which they are enrolled.

NIAFit Classes

Every Tues. & Thurs., 8:00 am

Geared to all current fitness levels. Current term ends December 15.

International Neighbors Needlework

Every Thursday, 1:00 – 4:00 pm
